Selection Criteria – Reasons for Nominating

In selecting a winner, the judges will consider the following criteria:

- Past and current achievements
- Demonstrated excellence in the nominated category
- The individual's status as an inspirational role model for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and the broader Australian community
- The individual's future goals and their likely impact

Please note Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander groups, businesses and organisations are able to be nominated for the Creative, Caring for Country and Culture, Education and Innovation Award Categories.

Please write a paragraph addressing the criteria above and explaining your reasons for nominating. If you are nominating for more than one award category, please ensure you address the multiple categories in your statement. You can provide additional information like testimonials, photos, resumes, news articles, portfolios, and websites to support your nomination. This can be included as attachments when emailing the nomination form.

Final selection may be subject to the provision of additional information.

Note: Nominations will not be accepted for an award category that the nominated person has previously won in the past 10 years. However, they are still eligible to be nominated for other award categories.

Privacy Statement

The National Indigenous Australians Agency (the NIAA) is committed to protecting the personal information it holds. The Agency will handle personal information you provide in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the Privacy Act).

Collection of personal information

The National NAIDOC Secretariat, as part of the NIAA, is collecting your personal information and the personal information of the person you have nominated for the purposes of the 2024 National NAIDOC Awards selection process.

Use and disclosure of personal information

The NIAA may provide this personal information to the Minister for Indigenous Australians, the National NAIDOC Committee, event organisers, and media. The NIAA also intends to produce publications to promote the 2024 National NAIDOC Award winners.

Providing the requested personal information is voluntary. If you choose not to provide us with your personal information we will be unable to assess your application for the award. You must ensure that the person you are nominating has also agreed to be nominated for an Award, and agrees to the personal information contained in this nomination form being provided to, and used, by the NIAA.

The NIAA will not provide the personal information collected from you to anyone else outside the NIAA, other than specified above, unless you or the person you have nominated have given consent for us to do this, or we are authorised or required to do so by law. The privacy and security of your personal information is important to us, and is protected by law. The NIAA's Privacy Policy can be found at <https://www.niaa.gov.au/pmc/who-we-are/accountability-and-reporting/privacy-policy> which explains how the NIAA handles and protects the information provided by you.

The NIAA's Privacy Policy also explains how you can request access to or correct the personal information we hold about you, and who to contact if you have a privacy enquiry or complaint. If you require a copy of our Privacy Policy contact the Privacy Officer at privacy@niaa.gov.au.

Consent to use and disclose personal information under the Privacy Act

I consent to the NIAA collecting this personal information and it being used and disclosed in whole or part for the following purposes:

- to conduct the 2024 National NAIDOC Award process;
- to provide to the Minister for Indigenous Australians, the National NAIDOC Committee, the organisers of the 2024 National NAIDOC Week awards, and the media to select, announce, and promote the 2024 National NAIDOC Awards.

I warrant that the nominee consents to me providing their personal information to the NIAA for the purpose of conducting the 2024 National NAIDOC Awards.
