Privacy Statement

The National NAIDOC Secretariat as part of the National Indigenous Australians Agency (NIAA) is collecting your personal information and the personal information of the person you have nominated for the purposes of the 2023 National NAIDOC Awards selection process. For the same purpose, we may provide this information to the Minister for Indigenous Australians, the National NAIDOC Committee, event organisers, and media. The NIAA also intends to produce publications to promote the 2023 National NAIDOC Award finalists and winners. Providing the requested information is voluntary. If you choose not to provide us with your information we will be unable to assess your application for the Award. You must ensure that the person you are nominating has agreed to be nominated for an Award, and agrees to the personal information contained in this nomination form being provided to, and used, by the NIAA. The NIAA will not provide the information collected from you to anyone else outside the NIAA, other than specified above, unless you or the person you have nominated have given consent for us to do this, or we are authorised or required to do so by law. The privacy and security of your personal information is important to us, and is protected by law. The NIAA's Privacy Policy can be found at niaa.gov.au/pmc/who-we-are/accountability-and-reporting/privacy-policy, which explains how the Agency handles and protects the information provided by you. The NIAA's Privacy Policy also explains how you can request access to or correct the personal information we hold about you, and who to contact if you have a privacy enquiry or complaint. If you require a copy of our Privacy Policy contact the Privacy Officer at privacy@niaa.gov.au.
